Rendered At Closing Exercises of Junction City School

Junction City, Ky., May 27. One of the most successful terms n the history of the Junction City Graded School was closed last week, when commencement exercises were held Thursday and Friday evenings. Supt. Breeding has done a great work this past term and everyone is well pleased with the progress of this splendid educational institution.

There were four graduates this year: Misses Gertrude Richardson Anah B. Pruitt, Lucy Hankla and Frances M. Powell. The class colors were purple and gold and the class flower a yellow rose.

On Thursday evening a very pleasing little play entitled "At the End of the Rainbow" was presented. It was a comedy in three acts. Those taking part in the play were Frank and was elected without question. T Powell, Lewis Alstott, Robert Lingle, J. Hill, Jr., nominated Shelton Sauf-John Burka, Ivan Moore, Ruth Lin- ley for secretary and he was chosen gle, Lucy Hankla, Virginia Needham, Ruth McCollum, Sara Richardson, Irene Lyons Gertrude Richardson, Anah Pruitt, and Lula Sewell.

The commencement exercises prottractive program for this occasion had bene arranged ,as follows:

March Essay-The Panama Canal, Frances M. Powell.

Presentation of Diplomas-Hon.-J. W. Rawlings.

Benediction-Rev. F. D. Palmeter. Large crowds were present on both evenings and everyone was greatly pleased with the entertainments.

The play on Thursday night was well staged and drew a $65 house Graw and the "apside down" kids grought down the house.

Boyle, Mercer and Shelby met at the Christian church in this city on Tuesday. Several splendid speeches were made by Mrs. E. B. Bourland, of Harrodsburg, Rev. C. E. Powell, of Danville, Mr. H. W. Smith, of of Danville, Mr. H. W. Smith, of change in the present party law Harrodsburg, Mrs. Mary S. Walden, which would denrive the democrats of Danville and Mrs. S. A. Harrison. of Lexington. The Bible school program was carried out in full on committee or committeemen ,who are Wednesday, Messre, J. W. Gaines, of Lawrenceburg, W. E. Frazee, of Louisville, R. H Crossfield, of Lexington and W. J. Clarke, making adstereoptican lecture by Mr. W. J. Clarke, of Louisville, closed the meeting on Wednesday evening.

Rev. Homer Carpenter, of Shelbyville, stopped with Mr. F. T. Burke and attended the convention.

Rev. Elliott, of Sulphur, was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. William Trosper while here attending the Convention.

Another story has been added to the mill at Shelby City and it will be ready to run by the first of June. Mr. Smith a practical miller of Campbellsville, will have charge of Notwithstanding the fact that there was never at any stage prior to the to the McCreary program, a large number of prominent democrats of the county telephoned the Interior Journal before the convention, askfound to McCreary, and if so they wanted to know it so that they and STANFORD ABR H PO A E a large number of their friends could Waters c ..... 4 1 1 13 4 come in to vote for a McCreary delegation. As it was, with no fight on, McCarty 1b ....4 1 2 6 0 several hundred prominent democrats from all over the county were present, and gave hearty acquiescence in the resolutions which instructed for the Hon. Champ Clark for president and for McCreary for chairman of the convention. Hearty applause was given mention of the splendid administration of Governor McCreary and reference to the splendid work done in Congress by Congressman Harvey Helm.

County Chairman Geo. L. Penny called the convention to order promptly at two o'clock, and stated the purpose, under the state call. Upon motion of S. M. Owens, of Me-Kinney, Mr. Penny was placed in nomination for temporary chairman. without opposition. Upon motion of Prof. J. W. Ireland, the temporary organization was made permanent. Col. Samuel T. Harris then offered the following resolutions, which per were held on Friday evening. An were unanimously adopted, and the convention then adjourned:

Wesley Embry Going Great Guns

Wesley Embry won his second came in the Bine Grass League at Frankfort. Monday defeating the Paris team the pennant winners of last year by a score of 8 to 2. The Louisville Herald said of his:

"Kid" Embey, of Stanford, again showed his ability by holding the heavy hitting Paris feam to scattered hits when hits meant runs. As steady as clock work when men were on bases, the voungster showed all the makeuo of a veteran. The Paris team played well, but could not hit when men were on bases."

A fire, which started in the clothing store of Anron Davis, caused a $75,000 loss at Lebanon Junction late last Friday afternoon. Practieally all the business section was wiped out. An entire block on Main street fronting the L. & N., depot was burned. Two men were very badly hurt. The loss is partly covered by insurance.
